

Are You Up for the Challenge..?

An epic weekend based on the

Explorer Scout Survival Badge

Set in Remote Surrey Hills

13th to 15th September 2019

The challenge will test physical, mental and emotional endurance in a weekend free from 'home comforts' – Yes, that's right – No Tech...

You will truly experience life 'back to basics' and learn how to provide for yourself all you need to survive in the wild:

-  Different techniques to light a fire
-  How to catch food/Identify edible plants
-  Methods of filtering and purifying water
-  Take part in a search and rescue scenario

Our team of instructors will guide you through skills training while you survive a two-night exercise in the wild...
